The Markets*LITTLE LIFE SHOWN IN THE BOND
MARKET TODAY

Firs: Full Day of Trading Since July 30 Shows Market on General Issues in a State of Stagnation.

New York, Nov. 30.—The bond market opened dull and listless on the New York stock exchange today, the first full day of trading of a sort since the exchange was closed on July 29.

Five minutes after the opening gong, only nine bonds with a face value of $3,000 had been sold. The market appeared to be in a state of stagnation.

United States steel 4% rose 10¢ to 99-3-4%; Southern Pacific convertible Corp. 4% and Distillers Securities 3% were off 1-3¢, selling at 93-1/2-4-5/8%, respectively. Westinghouse convertibles declined three points and Central Pacific's 4% declined 3/4 points.

As the day progressed the bulk of the trading was in small lots but occasionally twenty or thirty bonds changed hands in one transaction. Prices were irregular, with a better inquiry for a limited number of industrials and specialties whose products have been in greater demand by reason of the war.

Notable declines of the early session ranged from 2 to 7 points in Central Pacific 4%, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway 5%, Oregon Short Line 6%, and Laramie 7%. Among the few advances were Interstate 4%, Pennsylvania 3½%, and Lackawanna Steel 3%.

Altogether forty-six different issues were traded in up to noon. At that time sales approximated $500,000.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Lower cables and big receipts northwest had a bearish effect today on the wheat market here. After opening unchanged to 6c lower, the market rallied a little but then sagged lower than before.

Heavy arrivals of new crop shipments gave a setback to corn. The opening, which ranged from 1-5¢ to 2-5¢ higher, was followed by a decided break all around.

Gats were governed by corn.

Provisions weakened, owing to plentiful receipts of hogs at the principal western centers.

Closing prices:

Feeding on Comprehensive Scale to Be Undertaken Under Project This Year, as Result of Long Agitation.

Portales, N. M., Nov. 26.—The Portales Utilities company has offered a prize of $50 and various smaller cash prizes for the best looking farm houses in the Portales district. The offer is made to encourage the painting of houses and barns and the general beautifying of the places in and around Portales.

This showing speaks well for the Chino management at this time and still keeps it near the top of leading copper producers in the country.

Portales, N. M., Nov. 26.—The Portales Utilities company has offered a prize of $50 and various smaller cash prizes for the best looking farm houses in the Portales district. The offer is made to encourage the painting of houses and barns and the general beautifying of the places in and around Portales.

It is the company's plan that a committee be appointed consisting of three farmers and two business men of Portales, which committee shall inspect the farms on a date to be arranged later and their decision will be final with reference to the awarding of prizes. The prizes shall be awarded, not on the most expensive improvements, but upon the neatness and attractiveness of the farms.

F. G. Tracy recently bought from L. A. Swigart 128 Hereford calves, paying $25 a round for them, and is roughing them this winter, preparing to put them on the flesh next spring, when he will either rush the beef to market or dispose of it to local steer buyers. He has twenty steer yearlings which he is also fattening for the local market, and on his Esperanza farm, east of town, is carrying a small herd of fall-bred Durham steers and bulls through the winter.

The Carlsbad Plantation and Orchards company, which has 1,000 acres under the ditch southeast of Carlsbad, is starting the same game in this section with which it expects to feed a large bunch of steers. This company will probably feed 100 steers during the winter.

Women of Morarity Buy Cemetery Ground

The Woman's club of Morarity has raised money with which to buy a one-acre tract near the town for use as a cemetery.

NORTHERN COUNTY IS PROUD OF THIS YEAR'S SUGAR BEET OUTPUT

The Raton Range says: Every regular Santa Fe eastbound freight passing through the city now contains from one to a dozen or more cars loaded with Colfax county sugar beets en route to the Colorado refineries. Each succeeding year shows a marked increase in the number of carloads shipped from the Maxwell and the other ideal beet raising communities in the central and southern parts of the county. The harvest this year was exceptionally good and the quality of the product is superior to saccharine test to the rest of the Colorado beets. Northern New Mexico can point with pride to the demonstrated fact that her soil produces sugar beets equaling the best raised anywhere in the United States. The only "fly in our ointment" at the present time is the necessity of shipping several hundred miles before the product can be manufactured. A sugar beet factory for Colfax county, preferably located at Raton because of her shipping advantages, would give this county an industry capable of doing for the city and county what similar enterprises have done for Holly, Rocky Ford and other prosperous Colorado cities. One of the certainties for the near future, assured by the demonstrated ability of Colfax county soil to produce sugar beets with a surprisingly high percentage of sugar, is a large sugar refinery. Where it shall eventually be located in the county depends altogether on the enterprise of the community that wants it most and goes after it.

George M. Cooke, cashier of the First National bank, who also owns sheep and cattle on the plains east of Carlsbad, is making arrangements with H. D. Hubbard to feed a herd of steers, probably about 100 in all. Mr. Cooke is one of the pioneers in the feeding proposition, and has been instrumental in starting the movement in this locality.

S. Webster, proprietor of "Just Farm," six miles south of Carlsbad, is feeding fifty cows, and Ira Stockwell, a neighbor, is planning to handle steers.

Henry Knabe, who farms on the Pecos near the Otto district, will probably handle sheep in his feed lot during the coming winter. The established farmers and stockmen are enthusiastic over the feeding proposition and expect to gradually increase operations until the feed raised will be consumed locally and not be shipped out at summer prices.

PRISONER RETURNS AFTER THREE YEARS OF VACATION TRIP

Miguel Luna, who made his escape from the Lincoln county jail at Lincoln something more than three years ago, rode into Lincoln one day this week and surrendered, says the Carson News. The justice of the peace at Lincoln appointed R. A. Duran a special officer to bring Luna to Carson, which he did Tuesday. Bail in the sum of $1,500 was provided for Luna and he returned with Mr. Duran to Lincoln Wednesday.

The charge against Luna is attempt to kill. In the summer of 1911 he took a couple of shots at Manuel Argon, neither of which, however, took effect. Luna was arrested at the time, but later, with four other men, escaped from jail.

A desire to see his family and tired of dodging caused Miguel to voluntarily return and surrender. During the time he has been away he was in a number of states—Arizona, Colorado, California, Nevada and as far north as Wyoming.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

The Socorro Chieftain says: The body of an old man, apparently about 75 years old, was found on the tracks in the railroad yards here a few mornings ago badly mangled. Apparently the man had attempted to board a Santa Fe train No. 16 when it passed through in the early hours of the morning and had been thrown underneath the wheels and ground to death.

The body was discovered about 7 o'clock in the morning, and later was identified as that of a man giving his name as Dr. W. H. Whitaker, who some ten days or two weeks ago applied to Dr. Milton Torres for a night's lodging.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Gray Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, silvery hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wavy and straggly, just an application of two or three of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tea; you can get from any drug store a small bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and luster of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp irritation and falling hair.

Every body uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell if it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
